FOREWORD

Like its predecessors, the 57th issue of the Statistical Yearbook aims to give an accurate statistical picture of Synod's work at home and abroad. In content it presents no changes from the volumes immediately preceding it. However, a change in arrangement was made in the publication of the parochial reports. At the request of numerous brethren, these reports have been listed alphabetically according to the location of the congregations. This is the most logical arrangement and has many advantages over the former listing of reports according to pastors. However, it has one disadvantage. The various stations forming one parish are torn asunder, with the result that the statistics of a parish unit can in many cases not be seen at a glance. We hope to remedy this situation in the next Yearbook by listing every "filiæ" with the main congregation.

The practical and convenient Station Index of the 1942 Yearbook was discontinued to expedite the publication of this volume. It must be remembered that the listing of the page and line number in the index cannot be done in advance, but must wait until the printing job is nearly done. The completion of the book would have been delayed by several weeks if the elaborate index of last year had been retained.

In its place a new Station Index was prepared which simply states the District affiliation of the congregation in each city or town. In the respective District section the report of any particular congregation can then readily be found, inasmuch as the reports are now listed alphabetically according to stations. The key to the District abbreviations, used in the Index, is found on page 257. The church name abbreviations in the parochial reports are also explained on page 257.

In general, the co-operation was splendid, although no reports were received from 213 parishes, which in a large measure is due to the fact that there were 166 vacant parishes. In all such cases the previously published figures were reprinted.

In conclusion — for successes scored, for gains registered, for improvements noted, let us give all glory to God alone. For losses sustained, for failures suffered, for opportunities wasted, let us humble ourselves before God, seek His pardon, and mend our ways. And let us not forget that though statistics are vital to the successful management of a church body and that Synod no less than business corporations and governmental bureaus cannot dispense with statistical calculations, this volume reflects the size and activities of a visible church body and is subject to all the foibles of human limitations in the form of omissions and inaccuracies. But the Chief Statistician of the invisible Church, the omniscient Lord above, makes no mistakes. No reports are missing on His desk. "The Lord knoweth them that are His." Their names are written in the Book of Life.

ARMIN SCHROEDER, Statistician

NOTE. — The list starts with 1881, although baptisms and confirmations of adults were also reported prior to this. In 1918 a special column was set aside for these reports, and the number of confirmed jumped from 827 to 2,100, which showed that prior to this not half the pastors had reported on this phase of their ministerial activity.

Board. — Rev. H. A. Gamber, chairman; Rev. E. H. Bertram, secretary; Mr. G. F. Kruse, treasurer; Rev. C. J. Hoffmann; Mr. J. P. Miller; Rev. J. Schumacher.

Missionaries and Headquarters. — Pastors: R. F. Cordes, St. Paul, Minn.; F. Possehl, Brooklyn, N. Y.; N. E. Borchardt, Detroit, Mich.; N. W. Zellmer, Portland, Oreg.; A. E. Ferber, Kansas City, Mo.; W. D. Uhlig, Los Angeles, Calif.; W. Ferber, Fargo, N. Dak.; Theo. Frederking, Cleveland, Ohio; W. H. Gaertner, Oakland, Calif.; A. T. Jonas, Seattle, Wash.; E. Westermann, Memphis, Tenn.; Cl. Bremer, Chicago, Ill.; J. C. Streit, Oklahoma City, Okla.; A. Lutz, Minneapolis, Minn. Since September, Students Rohe, Schauland, and Delaney have been assisting in the fields of which Cleveland, St. Louis, and New York are the centers.

More than 250 stations are served by the missionaries. At ten headquarters we have our own chapels and at eight our own parsonages. Missionary J. C. Salvner of the Minneapolis field is serving as "administrative assistant" to the Board. Because of his parish duties, he has visited only a few missionaries. He is now planning to extend his visitations to other fields, with a view to co-ordinating and promoting the entire work of this far-flung mission, which reaches out to all sections of the country.

Statistics for 1943, based on the annual reports of missionaries: Souls, 4,980; voting members, 357; communicant members, 2,648; communed, 7,204; children baptized, 74; adults baptized, 40; children confirmed, 60; adults confirmed, 121; couples married, 80; persons given Christian burial, 55; children instructed, 792; periods of instruction, 2,477; services conducted, 2,558; calls, pastoral and missionary, 8,684.

The Deaf Lutheran, published monthly, has about 4,500 subscribers. Pastor O. C. Schroeder is the editor; Pastor N. P. Uhlig serves as business manager.

Missionary O. C. Schroeder is in charge of the work among the blind, with whom he maintains contact through correspondence and the periodicals of which he is the editor. These periodicals are: (A) The Lutheran Messenger for the Blind, a monthly periodical published in the English standard braille, with a mailing list of 1,150 and readers in every State of the Union and in certain foreign countries; (B) The Lutheran Herald for the Blind, moon type, mailed quarterly. Other publications for the blind, edited by our missionaries in American braille, are: Luther's Catechism (according to Dallmann); a reprint of Synod's Bible History for parochial and Sunday schools; a Lutheran Hymnal containing one hundred hymns, with braille musical notations; The Life of Dr. Martin Luther; a prayer book and other devotional works. A number of transcribers throughout the country have devoted their services to the cause of the Library for the Blind. Missionary C. Bremer of Chicago is in charge of the Library for the Blind, which occupies spacious quarters in his home.

Our missionaries are doing blessed work in 34 State schools, as well as in hospitals and asylums. In the schools for the deaf hundreds of children are instructed; some of them will eventually be confirmed. In Chicago, St. Louis, and Kansas City services are conducted for the benefit of colored deaf. The St. Louis missionary instructs students of our theological seminaries in the sign language. In 1943, 19 students of our St. Louis Seminary and 18 of our Springfield Seminary attended the sign language classes. Some of our missionaries use the mails to teach and keep in touch with their isolated people.

The appended financial report is that of the Board's treasurer. It should be noted that our deaf congregations contributed $21,037.19 for all purposes of the Kingdom.

d. Special Institutions

1. Bethesda Lutheran Home for Feeble-Minded, Epileptics, and the Helpless, Watertown, Wis. Founded 1904. 1 school with 2 teachers and 48 pupils. 32 employees. 370 inmates. Value of property: $600,000.

Receipts in 1943: $108,902.92. Disbursements: $100,560.46.

Bethesda Lutheran Home is controlled by a Board of Directors elected by members of the Association. Every communicant member of the Synodical Conference may become a member of the Association. The Board consists of 15 directors, 9 of the Missouri Synod and 6 of the Wisconsin Synod.

Board of Directors. — Rev. F. H. Eggers, president; R. C. Freihube, vice-president; Henry A. Mitzner, secretary; Dr. O. F. Doerker, treasurer; Rev. R. Reinke, Rev. F. C. Dietz, Rev. E. Benj. Schlueter, Carl R. Krause, Ed Schmidt, Arthur H. Mallow, August Egelhoff, Max Tetzlaff.

Source of Support. — In 1943, $35,783.94 were received for board from parents and guardians; the remainder was raised by congregations and individual donors, some of this by bequests. Mr. Louis Pingel is the superintendent of the institution, Rev. Theo. Eggers the chaplain, and Rev. Emil Dornfeld the field secretary.

2. Institute for the Deaf, Detroit, Mich. Founded 1873. 12 teachers, 100 pupils, 26 employees. Property value, $421,173.98.

The Ev. Luth. Institute for the Deaf is the only Protestant school for deaf and hard-of-hearing children in America. — It is controlled by an association of 48 congregations in the metropolitan area of Detroit. J. A. Klein is the director. The following constitute the board of directors under whose direction he operates: Rev. H. R. Wacker, president; Rev. L. Heinecke, vice-president; Walter Maul, secretary; Elmer Engel, cashier; Rev. Edw. Rossow, Werner Knack, L. C. Knorr, Fred J. Auch, B. Schumacher. School Board: Revs. Geo. M. Krach, N. E. Borchardt, L. H. Koehler.

The Institute accepts all deaf and hard-of-hearing children from the age of three years and up whose parents desire a Christian training and education for them. — Since the cost of educating deaf children is exceedingly high and since the Institute gives a Christian education to Synod's children so afflicted, the school must seek its support from all of Synod's congregations.
